THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Established 1872.

CHELTON BAUFLEY.....Publisher

EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge
 The Interior Journal is authorized to announce Charles A. Hardin as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the Thirtieth Judicial district, at the election to be held November, 1911, subject to the action of the Demo-

The old story of what the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina, was brought up at the Conference of the Governors at Frankfort last week. The true version is said to have been, that when the two executives of the Carolinas got together, one remarked "Remember the fate of Montgomery." "Who was Montgomery?" queried the other. "He's the man who died between drinks." As one of the chief features of the entertainment at the Capital City was an elaborate reception by Col. E. H. Farler, inventor of the famous Old Taylor brand of whiskey, we opine that none of the visiting governors was in danger of meeting the fate of "Montgomery."

Ed Shinnick keeps on a-talking about Ben Johnson's religious views in connection with his gubernatorial campaign. So far as we can observe, the Shelby Record man is the only one who is paying attention to that feature of the matter. We believe every newspaper opponent of Mr. Johnson in the state is broad-minded enough never to consider it under any circumstances so why an avowed advocate of Johnson keeps harping on it we can't understand. Let the subject drop, Friend Ed, you're the only one who is worrying at all about it.

Our good friend, Edward O. Leigh, once private secretary to governors, now editor of the Bowling Green Messenger, has declared against McCleary for governor. We expected as much since learning where lay the sympathies of "Judge" Henry H. Hines. We know, however, that Ed knows enough of the inside of conditions at Frankfort in the past to believe that if he is forced by his patron saint to swallow Ben Johnson, it's going to be a mighty bitter pill.

Congressman Harvey Hearn left Sunday for Washington to attend the opening of Congress. This is the last year in under the control of the republicans and it is expected that that party will endeavor to accomplish all the good possible in order to make things easier in the presidential election in 1912.

Many a noble congressman will sing his swan song at the short session of the national assembly which convened at Washington Monday in closed among whom will be the Hon. Don C. Edwards and James B. Bennett of Kentucky.

After being out about five hours, the jury found Joseph Wendling guilty of murdering little Alma Kellner in Louisville last winter and sentenced him to life imprisonment in the penitentiary. A new trial will be asked for by his attorneys.

During the first week in January, beginning the 3d, and lasting through the 6th, the Agricultural College of the State University at Lexington has arranged to observe Farmers' Week. This will be the best opportunity ever offered for farmers and stockmen of the state to avail themselves of the benefits of the Agricultural College. The Swine, Beef Cattle, Horse, Dairy Cattle and Sheep Breeders' Associations of the state will hold their annual conventions there on successive days, each devoting a half day to business, speeches, etc. and the other half to judging work. The State Corn Growers' Association the State Corn Show and Corn School will also be held at the college during the week. Liberal premiums are offered in the various classes in the corn show and equally liberal premiums for farm butter, creamery butter, farm milk and for certified milk. Rates of one fare plus 25 cents, for the round trip have been secured over all roads. The best authorities in the country on the various classes of stock, etc. have been secured for the week. All is also, lately free. A pleasant or more profitable week for the farmers of Kentucky could not possibly be arranged. Farmers' premium lists, etc., may be obtained by dropping a card in Mr. A. Scovell, director, Lexington, Ky.

WELL FITTING CLOTHES

There's no patent on the idea of wearing plain, well fitting clothes, nor is there a copy-right on selling them. Only so many people don't wear 'em or so many dealers don't sell 'em that it's always worth noting. We're here to sell clothes, and--we do. We sell good ones, but that doesn't mean they are dear. We buy carefully from makers we can depend upon, pay for and get good cloth, good lining, good workmanship and good fit. And we sell at a moderate profit.

Fall And Winter Suitings

My new fall and winter samples are now ready for your inspection. They comprise the best on the market. I can suit any one as to price who has his clothes made to order. A suit made to your measure is preferable to ready made clothes. To have them made to measure doesn't cost any more than ready made when quality and fit is considered. Come in and let me take your measure.
